AUTHOR BIOGRAPHY:

On July 4, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Deborah McTiernan was born into a family of avid readers. At the age of 4, she spent hours in her grandmother's attic typing on the portable, baby-blue Smith-Corona typewriter she'd discovered in an old steamer trunk. While pretending to write about the exciting adventures of heroes and heroines set in faraway lands, the keys of that typewriter ignited her imagination.

Her family was transferred from the East Coast to the Midwest. They eventually left the city and settled in the rural community of Orion, Illinois (thinly disguised as Archer's Bow, Illinois in her story, "Lilly Noble & Actual Magic"). It was while living in Orion, Deborah became a life long fan of fairy-tales, myth, and magic. Summers off from school gave her plenty of time to haunt the town library, read her favorite stories on the front porch, and hone her skills as a storyteller.

Deborah lives in Arizona.

Favorite color: Orange

Favorite holiday: Halloween

Favorite sound: Thunderstorm

Least favorite sound: Cat yacking up a hairball.

Favorite place to write: On a beach, in my bathing suit, under an umbrella, covered with sunblock.

Favorite candy: Skittles, I eat them by color, the yellow ones first.

Favorite food: Cold turkey sandwich with mayo and lettuce for lunch the day after Thanksgiving, right before we go out Christmas shopping.

Favorite Christmas song to sing: Handel's Hallelujah Chorus.

Favorite Christmas song to listen to: Silent Night.

Least favorite thing to do: Go shopping for anything. This is why I absolutely love Amazon.com.

Favorite thing to do on a stormy day: Read a book in front of a crackling fireplace.

Favorite fashion statement: Bunny slippers. Anyone who wears them is just plain cool!

Favorite character in her story: Lilly Noble, she's my heroine.

Least favorite character in her story: I don't have one. I love all of them.

Interview with the Author

Q: What makes your Actual Magic series special?

A: Before I began writing this series, my goal was to write stories that not only enchanted the children and teens, but also gave readers courage, confidence, and self-esteem in understanding the emotions of others. Coming of age, school issues like bullying, and social issues like family problems are confusing to kids. By writing from different points-of-view, the reader gets to see what thoughts drive another character's actions.

Growing up, I enjoyed reading Fairytale, Folktales, and Myths, Mysteries and Thrillers, Science Fiction, Science Fiction Fantasy, and all kinds of Paranormal Fiction. My favorite books contained a broad range of characters. From ghosts and vampires, to shape shifters, witches and wizards, dragons, fairies, elves, demons, and mermaids. These stories were set in strange and magical worlds. A boarding school, a haunted house, a cemetery, inside an enchanted wardrobe, on the other side of a mirror, and down a rabbit hole, to name a few. The hero or heroine often owned a reference library full of spell books, possessed psychic powers, and wielded magic with the flick of a wrist.

My Actual Magic series is a wonderful mix of all of those stories, with unforgettable characters, special worlds and magic powers. The reader will quickly discover this series focuses on the Science Fiction & Science Fiction Fantasy / Paranormal / Mystery & Thriller / Fairytale, Folktales, & Myth / Action Adventure / Spirituality Genres, and is laced with teen romance, and layered with magic.

Overall, in the Actual Magic series there is never a dull moment. Fast-paced, these books will keep the reader up all night, turning the pages. Only the very best stories cast that kind of spell, right?

Q: In what order should I read the Actual Magic series?

A:

Lilly Noble & Actual Magic

Lilly Noble & the Phantom Rush

Lilly Noble & the Secret Garden

A Mystery's Collection of 101 Love Spells

Lilly Noble & Actual Magic, a gremoire

Q: Why should children and teens give these books a try?

A: Because the Lilly Noble series is a collection of fun, fast-paced, thrill ride stories that will keep you reading long into the night. Each book keeps hitting the Amazon eBook and Amazon #1 Best Sellers list - which is no mean feat.

Ultimately, readers who enjoy lightning paced stories, with wonderful, engaging character, and plots that twist and turn, will love these stories.
